NORTHERN CAPE URBAN TVET COLLEGE
GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Attendance and Punctuality Policy

Students are expected to:

- Ensure that they attend all classes and arrive before the start of the class properly equipped and prepared to participate in the session.
- Inform their lecturer in person, if they have genuine reasons for lateness or absence.
- Understand the expectations of attendance, the levels at which follow up actions will happen and what the consequences will be.
- Always schedule medical and other appointments out of College hours where possible
- Not take on work commitments that clash with scheduled class times at the college. Any absence for work will constitute unauthorised absence.
- Commit to complete outstanding work as homework from classes missed due to poor punctuality or attendance.

Implementations of policy

Three stages of implementation

- A. Lecturers must issue the student with 3 formal written warnings
- B. 2 Formal absence review meetings – Lecturer, Programme Manager/ HoD and student
- C. Formal hearing with Campus Manager
